

MADISON, WISCONSIN
JOURNAL-TIMES
SUN-BULLETIN
E. 33,120
S. 32,023

FOIAb3b

FEB 17 1987
Burlington Student at UW
Says CIA Had No Control

CPYRGHT

Two former presidents of the International Student Conference in Leiden, The Netherlands, and Hoffman for the State Department's foreign service in Paris, France.

Both said their salaries on these assignments were not paid by the CIA.

formed after taking office that the Central Intelligence Agency was providing money to the NSA, but said they didn't know how much.

CPYRGHT

In Law School
Edward R. Garvey, 26, Burlington, and Donald A. Hoffman, 30, Elm Grove, Wis., both students in the University of Wisconsin Law School, said they were surprised to learn that the CIA gave their organization a reported $200,000.

They added that they received none of the money and were not on the CIA payroll.

"Nobody I knew was getting any money," Garvey said.

Had No Control

Both said neither the federal government nor the CIA had any control over the NSA.

After completing their NSA terms, Garvey worked for the